It was great aligning with you earlier, I am looking forward to connecting the dots with you here shortly - After further due diligence with our lender, for an outright sale to be successful, the total rent would need to be 1% of the purchase price. What we can do if your seller isn't completely opposed to it is providing a unique strategy that enables a large portion of equity to be leveraged at closing in a few short weeks as shown here. Approved Offer for 229 Hillcrest Dr, Henderson, NV 89015 Contingent on inspection and appraisal: Purchase Price $340,000.00 2. Down payment $ 34,000.00 (Funds to seller; this payment includes any real estate commissions) 3. Earnest Money Deposit of $500.00 wired within 24 hours of authorized agreement - becomes non refundable in 14 days after inspections to allow for agent and inspector accessibility as well as appraisal review 4. Remaining equity of $305,500.00 will be paid in full in just 72 months (No payments due to the significantly inflated down payment) 5. Buyer pays buyer's closing costs 6. Close of escrow in just 28 days
